

Prayer of Forgiveness

God, today in this moment I forgive myself, for anything that I'm holding onto that's not love, for myself and for my life, and for others.
And I forgive others, God, for anything that is not love between us, and I let that go back to you God, and I ask for all of my life force energy to return back from these thoughts, feelings and situations.